Piemmeti joins Bioenergy Europe

Since the beginning of this month Piemmeti, with Progetto Fuoco event, has become a member of Bioenergy Europe.

Bioenergy Europe (previously known as AEBIOM) represents the political-institutional voice of European bioenergy. “We are proud to join this organization – declares the President of Piemmeti, Ado Rebuli – and we are confident that we can actively contribute to the noble goal of Bioenergy Europe to enhance the bioenergy markets, also involving Italian and foreign companies that have identified a winning partner for promotion and visibility of the sector in Piemmeti.”

Bioenergy Europe’s mission is to be a “guarantor” that sustainable bioenergy is a fundamental pillar for the realization of a Europe with zero-emission.
